Any statements sent will not change the due date, statements are for your information. Please make payment off invoice. New customers are COD for the first year of business with us. Energy Surcharge: We hope that natural gas prices will be stable this winter, however we reserve the right to apply an energy surcharge if necessary on any product NOT pre-ordered. Plants ordered by February 1st, 2021 are considered pre-ordered.

Other Wholesale Plants: Ornamental perennials and native perennial plants are specialties of ours. Please request these lists if you are interested.

As many of you hopefully experienced in 2020, the demand and value of plants increased exponentially. 2020 was an uncertain year as COVID began just as our season got underway. Luckily, our industry seems to be reaping the benefits of people staying at home and practicing socially distancing. We experienced a high demand for our plants in both the retail and wholesale sectors of our business and expect the same for 2021. We are planning to increase items we sold out on early last year and we are focused to do our best to fill our wholesale orders that are placed in a timely manner. Due to COVID there are shortages on seeds, plant material and growing supplies and some varieties have been hard to order or may be sold out for 2021. We will try our best to fill our orders, but 2021 may be another year of supplying what we can and subbing what we cannot. We do highly recommend ordering as soon as you can so we can try to grow what our clients need!

Additionally you will notice that our prices are up slightly. Costs on seeds, plant plugs and the like had already been climbing faster than our pricing structure - even prior to COVID. One bright spot is that the costs of plastic containers has stayed relatively stable - at least up to the present. Let's hope the economy and supply chain issues return to a more "normal" state.

We strive to grow quality plants and feel we have a good reputation for doing so. Never the less, we would like to hear any suggestions, comments or complaints that you may have that will help us improve. Our growing is primarily geared toward production of pre-ordered crops, and less toward in-season orders. However, with that in mind, we do encourage you to check with us for in-season needs as they come up.

Thanks for your business!

Brent, Sue & Beth Hanson
